Description

With its 22mm height and high density thatch, Broadfield has a soft, comfy and cushioned feel underfoot. Its straight blades and curled base fibres in a mix of greens and beige to give it a realistic appearance, this artificial grass looks amazing in any garden.

It's easy to keep this artificial turf looking great with no need to mow or water and minimal maintenance required.

Incredibly versatile and can be used in a multitude of places from covering old concrete drives to replacing existing lawns or giving your balcony and roof a new look.

Water drains through this grass easily to the surface below with its water permeable backing and drainage holes.
